MACHINE LEARNING PROJECT

Description:

Within the university environment, find an appropriate problem that can be solved using machine learning. Identify the problem and design the most suitable type of learning for the identified problem.

Submission requirements:

1. Codes for the developed machine learning model.
2. Report that indicates all possible processes involved in the machine learning framework and end-to-end pipeline applied.